QTerminals Joins Autonomous e-Mobility (AEMOB) Forum 2024 as Bronze Sponsor

Doha, 8 April 2024 – QTerminals, Qatar's leading terminal operator, has signed on as a Bronze Sponsor for the Autonomous e-Mobility (AEMOB) Forum 2024, reinforcing its commitment to advancing sustainable transportation solutions.

The AEMOB Forum, scheduled to be held in Doha, Qatar from April 30th to May 2nd, will serve as a platform for global stakeholders to discuss the future of autonomous e-mobility and its implications for transportation systems worldwide. QTerminals' support as a Bronze Sponsor underscores its dedication to driving innovation in the mobility sector.

" QTerminals' sponsorship of the AEMOB Forum reflects its commitment to supporting initiatives that promote sustainable and efficient transportation practices. We look forward to their contributions to the forum.", said Ahmad Al Ansari, Executive Committee Member of the AEMOB Forum.

QTerminals is a joint venture between Qatar Ports Management Company (Mwani Qatar) and Qatar Navigation (Milaha). It operates Hamad Port, Qatar's main seaport, and provides container, general cargo, and offshore support services.

"We are proud to support the AEMOB Forum as a Bronze Sponsor," said [Spokesperson], [Designation] at QTerminals. "As a key player in Qatar's logistics sector, we are committed to driving innovation and sustainability in transportation. Our participation in the forum aligns with our vision to maintain the highest levels of productivity and service delivery without compromising on safety and quality."

The partnership between QTerminals and the AEMOB Forum highlights the importance of collaboration between industry leaders and stakeholders in advancing sustainable transportation solutions. Through this sponsorship, QTerminals aims to play a proactive role in shaping the future of mobility in Qatar and beyond.
